You ask me to preach a sermon on equality. Since that time I have ranged in vision through the vegetable world; I saw flowers of equal lustre and perfume, trees of unequal height and value, but there was no equality. I passed through the animal kingdom, and saw the trained horses and the fierce beast of prey, the linnet and the hawk, the sparrow and the eagle, the sheep and the horse, each occupying a relative sphere.

Judge of the Universe; cherubim and seraphim fell before him, angels of lesser degree did him bidding. I found seven heavens rising above each other, but no equality there. I gazed on the stars, and found "one star different from another star in glory," but there was no equality. So you see that there is no equality in all God's vast kingdom.

SALT-ITS EFFECT ON THE BLOOD

Dr. Stevens, a French physician and surgeon, saw a butcher killing a pig. He observed that he stirred the blood of the animal and added a handful of common salt to it while stirring, which stirring be continued, the blood remained fluid. The change of the color of the blood awakened his curiosity. The seized a vessel, caught some blood, and made several experiments by putting salt in it, and found that the blackess broad was instantly changed to a bright In prospect of an abundance of supplies we have vermillion by salt. It is excellent for functional derangement of the Liver or constipation of the bowels; in most cases superseding the necessity of greating most cases as persential through the contract that the public compounds now put up for Diarrhea, Dysentery, Cholera Infantum or Cholera Morbus.

This medicine has been in use for years, and gives universal satisfaction.

The most delicate child may take it with impunity.

COVINGTON, G. A., Nov. 9, 1867.

Dr. PROPHITT:—Having a very severe attack of Dysentery during the past; hemmes, I was induced to use your Dysentery Cordial, and derived thereform immediate and permanent relief. It gives me pleasure to recommend this remedy to all who may be so attacked, believing that, should the directions be fellowed, relief would surely be obtained.
